SUBIECTUL I (10x 3 point =30 points)
Read the texts and decide if the sentences following them are true or false. Write T for true and F for false on the answer sheet.

a) Christmas is an important holiday for Christians. They celebrate the birth of Jesus Christ on December 25th. People give presents and send greetings cards to their friends and family at Christmas time. Children get presents from Santa Claus on Christmas Eve. Most families have a Christmas tree in their homes. The tree is decorated with small lights and ornaments. Santa puts presents in a big stocking or under the Christmas tree.

b) Easter always falls on Sunday. People dyed hard-boiled eggs and children get gifts of candy eggs, rabbits and chicks. The Easter Bunny leaves these presents in a basket and hides dyed eggs in the house or in the yard. Children try to find the painted eggs the day after Easter.

c) Halloween is a special holiday for children. Dressed up as ghosts, monsters, witches, pirates and vampires, they go from house to house, knocking on the door and calling out "Trick or treat!" . They are given gifts of candy or money.
